THE POPE LOVES AMERICA.

Archbishop Ireland when seen in Rome on Saturday, in speaking of his interview with the Pope, said: "I found Leo looking extremely well, having lost none of his old animation. It is six years stoce I last saw him and those years do not appear to have made any appreciable difference in his ap-pearance. The interview lasted 50 minutes and it was most cordial throughout. Nobody elsa was present, the Pope having insisted on a tete-a-

When asked what had been said about the forthcoming papal letter to Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ireland replied: "I cannot yet say anything on such a delicate subject. Some time will elapse before its publication. "The Pope's expressions of deep and interior state of the control of the control of the control of the Catholic Church in the United States touched me profoundly. His voice of peace and truly Christian love should quiet all discord and dispel all with understandings.

mi-understandings.
"I greatly appreciate General Draper's attention in giving a banquet in my honor. Archb shop Keane, Monsignor, O'Connell, Consul General De Castro, General Bates, Archbishop Stonor and Caprain Barber, naval attache, all notabilities of the American colony, were present."

He refused to enter into the question of Americanism, but said that rumors about the Pope's hostility to the movement is utterly unfounded.

A NORTHERN VERDICT.

Highly recommended by all. They Speaking of the Sixth Virginia regiout, and of the record of negro volunteers in general, the New York Sun

"It is well to consider that, in this matter of experimentation with negro volunteers, the South was easily in the lead. One northern State-Illinoisbestowed upon us the spectacle of col-ored troops under colored officers, but ored troops under colored officers, but two southern States that we know of—Virginia and North Carolina—were shead of the procession. Perhaps it and liver troubles Small pill, best pill, safe was well to make the trial. We did pill. Edgs not think so, for we know the negro Pittstreets. not think so, for we know the negro and his 'leaders.' At all events, the test was ordained, and the whole country now knows the result. The negro volunteers, especially when officered by men of their own race, have been failure and pest. They would fight. They will fight. They have the martial instincts of their savage ancestors in darkest Africa. But it has been made only too plain that they are not adapted to the conditions of modern civilization, and to apply them to any thing save actual and continued war-fare, is to invoke a certainty of offense against every interest of enlightened and organized society. The finish of the Sixth Virginia was foreseen months ago. Now that it has materialized, we contemplate it with all the philosophy of settled expectation."

A FORTUNE FOR THE PRINCE.—The Prince of Wales, it is rumored, will benefit to the extent of $1,250,000 under the will of the late Baron Ferdinand Rothschild. A bequest to that amount was left in the will to Alfred Rothschild, Baron Ferdinand's cousin, who is already a multi-millionaire, and the suggestion is that this sum is iutended for the Prince of Waler, to whom the legacy was not formally left, so as to obviate gossip about his finan-

Under English law, a 10 per cent. legacy duty is chargeable to this bequest. The Prince is well known to want money badly, as, although his allowance was increased by Parliament by $150,000 a year, to provide mar-riage portions for his daughters, he is obliged to make the Duke of York a large allowance out tof his private purse, and his own expenses are very heavy.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worse form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melaucholy, headache, baca-ache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working machine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cts. Sold by E. L. Allen and E. S. Lead-
